

I do not wish to have the do not call law in NJ weakened or removed. I find there to be seemingly endless solicitations and feel we are continuously bombarded with advertisers messages and such that we should not have to contend too with unwanted interruptions and aggressive telemarketers who are a nuisance at best and abrasive and rude in many instances. I for one appreciate the intensions of the law and hope it is an effective deterrent.